Mikroglottika Yearbook 2008 (Mikroglottika. Minority Language Studies) From Peter Lang GmbH, Internationaler Verlag Der Wissenschaften

This volume presents the articles published in the first two issues of the online periodical Mikroglottika - An International Journal of Minority Language Philologies. It came about in 2007 with the purpose of providing philologies of minority languages with a platform of discussion. The range of topics dealt with in this book may have to do with the linguistic or philological description of a minority language in relation to any linguistic parameter (phonology, morphology, syntax, lexicon etc., the discussion being synchronic or diachronic), or they may imply the sociolinguistic description of a particular situation in which one or several minority languages are involved.
